INVITATION LETTER

Dear Antonius Yudhi Anggoro, Hongki Julie, Febi Sanjaya and Marcelinus Andy Rudhito,

I am pleased to inform you that your paper entitled “The Teachers’ Ability in Mathematical Literacy for The Change and Relationship Problems on The PISA Adaptation Test” has been reviewed and accepted for presentation at The 6th South East Asia-Design Research (SEA-DR) International Conference which will take place in Banda Aceh, Indonesia, from 27th to 28th June 2018.

As convenor of the conference it is therefore my great honour and pleasure to invite you to participate and play an important role at the conference by presenting your research.

I am sure that the presentation of your research results will give the conference a high impact. Therefore, I highly look forward to welcoming you at the 6th SEA-DR International Conference in Banda Aceh.

Please submit your revised manuscript and pay the conference fee by the deadline. For detailed information, please visit the conference’s website www.seadr.unsyiah.ac.id

Thank you

Banda Aceh, 15 May 2018

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Rahmah Johar
Convenor the 6th SEADR Conference
