Dear Dr. Agustina Setiawati

Thank you for considering the APJCP for publication of your research work. Unfortunately you have not followed the Guidelines in the Instructions to Authors and therefore the paper cannot be processed at present.

-Reference style should be like this, Blue A, Pink B, Green C, et al (2000). Title. Asian Pac J Cancer Prev, Volume, Pages.(Alphabetically, NOT NUMBERED! If authors are more than 3, you should write it like Blue A, Pink B, Green C, et al . The name of journal should be in Italic, and Volume should be in Bold. Issue number is not needed, and comma should be comma.)

For example,

Blue A, Pink B, Green C, et al (2000). Cancer. Asian Pac J Cancer Prev, 17, 105-11.

If you need Endnote output style for references, you can download it in the “Information for Authors” page on the APJCP website.

-In case you include Tables and Figures into manuscript, please enclose one Powerpoint File with Figures and one Excel file with Tables.

We hope that you will resubmit to this e-mail address taking these points into consideration.

Best wishes

Your sincerely

Malcolm A Moore Ph.D.
