Dear Zalik,

I apologize for the delay in my response. Unfortunately, this email went to my junk folder and I did not see it until now. I understand that the deadline for revisions has passed, but I would like to request an extension if possible.

Additionally, I noticed that my journal is still waiting for assignment on the website. I apologize for any miscommunication and for missing the deadline.

I will make sure to revise my manuscript according to the IMRAD format and to include an image related to Integrating ChatGPT into EFL Writing Instruction in the Methods Section.

Please let me know if I still have the possibility for an extension for the journal submission.

Thank you,
Risang
