

Forbidden conference

Ma. Luisa T. Reyes <mreyes@ateneo.edu>

Sun 25/10/2015 22:06

To: Paulus Sarwoto <sar@usd.ac.id>

Hi Pak Sarwoto,

Please let me know your schedule while in Manila for the Forbidden conference asap. You said you plan to be in town for five days? The conference will be from November 19 to 21. So, I imagine, you will arrive on November 18 and leave on November 22?

Might you have a free afternoon to spend in Ateneo de Manila University possibly to deliver a talk at the Kritika Kultura Lecture Series, perhaps on November 18, Wednesday, at 4.30-6pm, Ateneo campus? The talk is actually for about 45 minutes only. The rest of the time is for the forum.

The KK talk can be on the same topic as your paper for the conference, so you won't have to make a different preparation for it. Or it can also be on a topic you are most familiar with so you won't have to make any new research either.

By way of honorarium in kind, you could have books of your choice for free from the Ateneo de Manila University worth not more than two thousand pesos.

What do you think?

By the way, have you made arrangements for accommodations? The conference announcement has listed down suggestions of hotels, hostels, etc. near U.P. If you have any problems, please let me know.

Cheers,

Lulu

Re: Forbidden conference

Paulus Sarwoto <sar@usd.ac.id>

Mon 26/10/2015 7:20

To: Ma. Luisa T. Reyes <mreyes@ateneo.edu>

Good morning from Jogja!

Thank you Bu Reyes for the invitation to present my article in KK lecture series. I would be glad to meet wonderful colleagues from KK ADMU and discuss my paper. I would be in Quezon city from 18 Nov. evening and leave on the 23rd morning. I believe I could use one of the afternoon sessions when not presenting a paper to visit ADMU - at the moment I am still waiting for the schedule of the presentation from UP. Once confirmed I will let you know if the time is fine with our Ateneo's colleagues.

I have booked a room at Microtel Inn(<http://www.microtel-uptechnohub.com/>) as suggested by the conference committe since they provide shuttle pick up from there to the conference venues.

Regards

Sarwoto

Paulus Sarwoto, Ph.D.

Graduate Program in English Language Studies

Universitas Sanata Dharma

Yogyakarta - INDONESIA

www.usd.ac.id

From: Ma. Luisa T. Reyes <mreyes@ateneo.edu>

Sent: Sunday, 25 October 2015 22:06

To: Paulus Sarwoto

Subject: Forbidden conference

Hi Pak Sarwoto,

Please let me know your schedule while in Manila for the Forbidden conference asap. You said you plan to be in town for five days? The conference will be from November 19 to 21. So, I imagine, you will arrive on November 18 and leave on November 22?

Might you have a free afternoon to spend in Ateneo de Manila University possibly to deliver a talk at the Kritika Kultura Lecture Series, perhaps on November 18, Wednesday, at 4.30-6pm, Ateneo campus? The talk is actually for about 45 minutes only. The rest of the time is for the forum.

The KK talk can be on the same topic as your paper for the conference, so you won't have to make a different preparation for it. Or it can also be on a topic you are most familiar with so you won't have to make any new research either.

By way of honorarium in kind, you could have books of your choice for free from the Ateneo de Manila University worth not more than two thousand pesos.

What do you think?

By the way, have you made arrangements for accommodations? The conference announcement has listed down suggestions of hotels, hostels, etc. near U.P. If you have any problems, please let me know.

Cheers,
Lulu