Dear authors,

Thank you so much for your submission to the Jesuit Higher Education journal, "The Implementation of Ignatian Pedagogy in a Jesuit University in Indonesia: Students' Perspectives," submission #1308. I am writing with an update and a request: Regis University, which hosts the journal, suffered a cyber attack last month. Fortunately, all of our journal files are stored with our external vendor, BePress. However, the connection between BePress and the Regis website has not yet been restored. This means that although all of the files are safe, currently our editors cannot access them. We hope that this situation will be fixed soon.

In the meantime, we would like to make progress on the fall issue. Could you please re-send both your original submission and your revised version, if possible? I am cc'ing the editor, Cristiano Casalini, so that you can send it directly to both of us. Cristiano will communicate with you about editorial decisions.

Thank you so much for your patience and collaboration.

Best,
Kari

Dear Kari,

I am sorry to hear that there was a cyber attack to Regis University. I hope all the files will be successfully restored.

Here, I am attaching the original submission that was accepted to be published. Apologies for not attaching the revised version yet as my co-authors and I are still working on it. I will email the revised version shortly after we finish the revision.

Could you please let me know about deadline? I emailed Mr. Casalini after receiving the email about the decision but I have not heard from him.

Thank you.

Regards,
Ella

Thank you so much, Ella. Would it be possible to have your revision around October 15? If that's not possible, what would be a more realistic deadline for you?

Best,

Kari

Dear Kari,

Please find attached the revised version of our manuscript. We have made some changes such as adding a reference to rephrase our initial part of literature review, and correct some grammatical mistakes.

Thank you and I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
