Dear Ibu Caecilia,

We are aiming to include the manuscript in the journal publication. We are, however, still in the process of editing the paper and there might be further revisions required from you. Due to various institutional obligations, there have been delays in the editing process.

We will be in touch again soon within this month.

Kind regards,

Editors

Subject: Review Results

Dear Dr. Nurenzia Yannuar,

We have now received the review report of your manuscript. Please find below some comments from the reviewers. Further feedback can be found in the attached file.

Two issues that need to be justified.

- 1) Why a mixed-methods design is considered to be appropriate to the research objectives?;
- 2) How was the epistemological conflicts between a priori (pre-determined) categories and posteriori (emerging) themes in data analysis addressed?

We would appreciate it if you could address the reviewer's comments and send us a revised manuscript in three weeks' time. Please use track changes to mark your revisions. Thank you very much.

Kind regards,
