Dear Bernadeta Wuri Harini,

Sorry for the misunderstanding.

8 pages refers to maximum length that the publisher can accept for publication. For conference registration, one regular fee covers a paper within 5 pages.

Hope this would clarify.

Thank you.

Dear

Sasha Pan (Ms.)

Conference Secretary of ICOG

Here I send the revision of my paper in both doc and pdf files. It contains 5 pages, although in doc file, there are 6 pages, because the last page is empty.

Thank you.

Best regards

Bernadeta Wuri

Subject: OGE18-107 final papar confirmation

Dear Ms. Bernadeta Wuri Harini,
I hope this email finds you well

We're going to submit papers to the publisher recently.

As we formatted your paper again, in order to avoid any discrepancy from original paper, could you please check attached version to see if it's alright? If you find some errors, please kindly make corrections on this version and send me updated paper.

Could you please give me confirmation by July 18, 2018?

*Note: If we don't get your response by end of July 18, 2018, we'll consider attached version as camera ready paper and will submit it to the publisher as is. If there's any problem on the publication afterwards, we do not bear any responsibility. We appreciate your understanding.

Any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you.

Dear Ms. Bernadeta Wuri Harini,

Thanks for your email.

The proceedings is not yet online. We don't know the exact date for online as well as index. The publisher will not tell us, they have their own schedule. All we have to do is waiting.

For now, IEEE conference proceedings is still in the Scopus indexing list.

I'll write to you if there's any update.

Best Regards!
